CASE FROM SAN FRANCISCO FIRE

Bruner Sues C. Brewer & Co. for Coffee Burned—Other Court News.

Notwithstanding the extensive commercial relations between San Francisco and Honolulu, it is only now, after a lapse of over fourteen months, that an instance of litigation arising from the burning of San Francisco appears in the Hawaiian courts. There was some difficulty in the local stock exchange over stock certificates destroyed in that fire, but it never came to a contest of either law or equity.

W. W. Bruner has brought a suit against C. Brewer & Co., Ltd., claiming $10,361.78 of that corporation under a contract to market his coffee. The claim is upon 2428 bags of coffee delivered by plaintiff to defendant between October 1, 1905, and March 20, 1906, which was in the possession of defendant or its agents in San Francisco on April 20, 1906, and was destroyed by fire.

THE INCIDENT CLOSED.
William O. Smith, trustee, yesterday delivered a receipt for $3022.70 to M. T. Simonton, commissioner of sale in the Pacific Heights electric railway case, recently decided by the U. S. Supreme Court.

COURT ITEMS.
Judge Dole approved the semi-annual accounts of P. L. Hatch, both as clerk and commissioner, of the U. S. District Court.

A notice is posted in the Judiciary building, that the law library will be kept open every night from 7 to 9 o'clock, excepting on Sundays and holidays, and anyone entitled to use the library may arrange to stay until 11 o'clock.

ESTEE'S WIDOW GETS NOTHING

Estate of Lamented Jurist Is Bankrupt—Sale of His Library.

The late Judge Estee's estate is bankrupt, according to a report made by J. J. Dunne, administrator with the will annexed, along with his final account. Receipts in this account are $2645.75 and payments $2372.41, leaving a balance of $273.34. Mr. Dunne says: "An examination of the account will show that the estate is not in a condition to meet its obligations, there being only $273.34 for distribution among the creditors, a full list of whom will be found in the former account filed by this administrator. The administrator respectfully prays that upon the settlement of this account an appropriate order be made determining the mode in which this balance of $273.34 shall be distributed among the creditors. The administrator points out that there is nothing in the estate for distribution to any legatee or devisee."

Frances H. Estee, widow of deceased, and Elizabeth H. Ryan, his private secretary, are the devisees and legatees. The estate would have been in much worse condition had not Mr. Dunne, with great and persevering exertions, succeeded in selling the more valuable portion of Judge Estee's library to the United States Government for the use of the Federal court here. This he did in two lots, the aggregate realization being $158.25. The remnant was sold at auction, bringing $130.40.

The settlement with the lamented judge's banker and the undertaker's bill of $500 form the principal items of expenditure in the final account.

OTHER PROBATE MATTERS.
Judge Robinson approved the accounts and ordered the discharge of Ellen Dwight, administratrix of the estate of Chas. B. Dwight, on filing of final receipts. There is $2372.98 for distribution between the widow and five children. Four of the latter are minors and under the guardianship of their mother. The eldest daughter, having come of age, received her distributive share of $733.70 on approval of the guardian's final account.

The late John J. Dower's estate is appraised by Charles Phillips, Harry Armstrong and M. T. Simonton at a valuation of $2249.50. No fees were charged by the appraisers.

JUDICIAL ASSAY OF COINING CASES

Mori, the King street storekeeper who passed a counterfeit $10 piece on a driver for H. Hackfeld & Co., was yesterday committed to the Federal grand jury, along with three witnesses.

Morikawa, the Japanese brought from Kukulhaele as a witness and then placed under arrest for passing spurious money, had his preliminary examination before Commissioner Hatch yesterday. It was conducted by District Attorney Breckons.

After the defendant had testified in his own behalf and been cross-examined, Mr. Breckons said he had no rebuttal. Mr. Hatch took the case under advisement and later continued it until Thursday.

Morikawa was a luna on Kukulhaele plantation and he testified yesterday that in his pay envelope, containing $41.55, he found the two $10 coins placed

WALLACH FREED UPON A FLUKE

It Was a Fake Oath That Johnny Holt Administered to the Faker.

J. Lor Wallach, the bogus medicine man, was cleared of the charge of perjury by order of Judge Lindsay yesterday afternoon, without having been put to the trouble of making a defense. The indictment was based on the allegation of false swearing by Wallach, as to his place of residence, before the Board of Registration. On the strength of an admission made by John D. Holt, Jr., a member of the Board, under cross examination by Frank E. Thompson, attorney for defendant, the court ruled in effect that Wallach took no oath before the Board and therefore could not have committed perjury as charged. The form of oath as signed by Wallach, which had been put in evidence, was stricken out. Having so ruled the court immediately granted the next motion of Wallach's attorney, to direct the jury to return a verdict of not guilty.

Bruce Cartwright, Jr., signed the verdict as foreman. Clerk Marcellino read it. Judge Lindsay then, on motion of Mr. Thompson, ordered the defendant discharged and his bond cancelled.

Between the ruling and the direction mentioned, Deputy Attorney General M. F. Prosser had moved that the prosecution have leave to reopen its case for the purpose of further examination of Mr. Holt, but the court denied the motion.

Mr. Prosser rested the case for the Territory at 10:25 yesterday morning with the reading of the indictment to the jury.

Mr. Thompson then made a motion to strike out Holt's testimony and affidavit, the latter being the oath signed by Wallach and acknowledged by Holt. He argued the motion with authorities and Mr. Prosser, contrary, also with authorities, the argument not being concluded until the afternoon session.

What Holt admitted on cross-examination was that, in administering the oath to Wallach, he might have said only, "You swear that this is true." He could not swear that he used the words, "So help you God," of the usual judicial formula.

Judge Lindsay held that the authorities were decisive of the principle that a judicial oath to be valid must invoke the Deity.

After the discharge of Wallach the court adjourned in April term sine die.

LONG LASTING WEDDED WOE

Wife Deserted Over Thirty Years—Husband Left Alone Twenty Years.

Three deserted spouses who have borne the deprivation of conjugal companionship for extraordinarily long periods without murmuring loud enough for the lawyers to hear them are seeking to end their solitary grief in the divorce court. A woman has been looking out of the window awaiting her truant husband's return for more than the life of a generation—"over thirty years," she complains. Then there are two lonesome husbands whose wives went gallivanting from home, respectively, twenty and eight years ago, who have concluded that it is time to give the heartless partners of their joys and sorrows legal dismissal from partnership that has been altogether too much of the "silent" kind.

Kekuni Ahina sues her husband Ahina for divorce on account of his desertion of her for over thirty years. They were married July 1, 1875, at Honolulu, and last lived together at Kaneohe.

John Paea sues his wife Kaiowe for divorce on the ground of desertion for over twenty years. They were married July 4, 1873, at Waimanalo.

Henry Kaapana is suing for divorce from his wife Kauwila for desertion of over eight years. They were married September 14, 1894, at Kaneohe.

Malie Kaoku Ah Kim admits the allegations in her husband's libel for divorce, waives all right she may have to object to the jurisdiction of the court and asks that the bonds of matrimony between herself and the libellant be dissolved.

Judge Robinson granted a divorce to Flora E. Holland against George Holland, giving her the custody of two minor daughters.

In evidence by the District Attorney. He said he did not open the envelope until 9 o'clock the night of payday, at his home. His house was about half a mile from the plantation office. Asked why he had delayed opening his envelope he gave answers to the effect that he had no occasion to use the money in the meantime. His cook usually paid the store bills.
